The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of P.B. College organized a mandatory two-day induction programme on 26. And 27 September 2019 in the college's digital classroom. The programme was specifically tailored for newly admitted undergraduate students to familiarize them with various aspects of college life. Its objectives included raising awareness about opportunities within the college, helping students adjust to the college environment and its traditions, acquainting them with available resources, and instilling the values and ethos of P.B. College. Additionally, the programme aimed to strengthen the student-faculty relationship, promote social interaction among peers and between students and teachers, and introduce students to support services offered by the college. Overall, the induction programme sought to ensure that new students felt welcomed, informed, and supported as they began their academic journey at P.B. College.
