EDITORIAL

Happy that IQAC has taken initiative to publish the newsletter PRAYAS- a treasure trove for the institution as it tries to publish glories that the college achieved during this academic year in news form. Anything that is creative, that is own; but one needs the capable environment to hold the burden. I'm indebted to them who stood beside me in between laurels and failure and helped me around in every possible way during the preparation of this Newsletter. PRAYAS is meant to write about those events and programmes held in our college so that when memories get blurred then the records in Prayas will flicker like gleaming flies.
