EDITORIAL

Creating history, a singular moment can anchor Time's passage for years. Amidst institutional challenges and the new NEP format, or hanging around in death toll situation due to Corona pandemic either, the news of a student distinguishing herself with 4th place in the HS (Commerce) final examination of 2022 has redefined the institution's significance. Nancy Khetawat's achievement of securing fourth place in the H.S. Exam has infused our college with renewed purpose and momentum. Her accomplishment resonates with narratives that go beyond mere accolades, as they reshape our academic performance and highlight the strengths within us. These narratives weave tales of rearranging our success and setbacks, thereby reshaping the significance of our academic performance. They focus on identifying the strengths within both individuals and the institution as a whole. Prayas is endeavoring to highlight Nancy's success with pride in the current issue.
